BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

H.Y. Referring to G.O. no. X G 6620-45 / Gen 236-07-1 dt. 13.5.08, states that it is not possible to reduce the establishment of the medical sub of his office by 3 persons and observes that it seems to an office consisting of 2 gaz. Hd Officers and 19 clerks are not more than what is absolutely required

It is a question whether 2 orderlies will be enough for the Asst Comm' both for home & office work. Perhaps three may be necessary 1 to attend on him at office & 2 at home as home orderlies by turns. Such an arrangement would give one more peon for the office. The work of keeping the office clean & lighting lamps &c (somewhat occasional work) should be done by the peons & there seems to be no reason to employ special Masalchis, farashes & Sweepers for such purpose.

The mutchis ought also to help in despatching the parcels &c referred to in the Ex. Comm's letter

On the whole no case seems to be made out ~~of~~ against the revision recently ordered

No. 423 OFFICE OF THE EXCISE COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE.

DATED BANGALORE, 10th July 1908

From

M. Narain Rao Esquire,

off-g. Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

To

K.S. Chendrasekhara Iyer Esquire, B.A.,B.L.,

Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

Adverting to Government Proceedings No.G.6620-45/G.M.236-07-1, dated 13th May 1908 passing orders regarding the revision of the menial establishments attached to the several Head Quarter Offices, I have the honor to state that my office menial staff has been ordered to be reduced by three peons. From the extract of a memo of the Retrenchment Committee dated the 27th July 1907, which accompanied the Government order, I see that 1 Jamadar, 1 Daffadar and 3 peons have been allotted to the Excise Commissioner and 2 peons for his Assistant, while the appointments of a Masalchi and a Farash have been done away with. In respect of these Retrenchments I beg to submit that the curtailment of three peons is not feasible under the present circumstances A masalchi and a Farash are absolutely necessary and their services cannot be performed by other peons. The Excise Commissioner has under his immediate supervision the Government Central Distillery and the distance from the Town to that place is not inconsiderable. The Assistant Commissioner has also to supervise the work in the Distillery. The number of Orderlies allowed to the Excise Commissioner and to his Assistant are therefore quite insufficient. It is smaller than that allowed for an ordinary Revenue Assistant Commissioner. No doubt the Excise Commissioner, as Inspector General of Registration, has three Orderlies but the latter office combines with it that of that that of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies and the Stamp Commissioner. For these three offices three Orderlies are not more than the actual requirements.

2. The Excise Stores are kept in a portion of the "Ballabrooie" bungalow and requires a guard; besides, forms and registers will have to be frequently brought from the bungalow to the office. The pay of a sweeper was hotherto being met out of the contingencies and the Comptroller having objected to this procedure, the services of the sweeper had to be dispensed with. The work in this office to the menials is comparatively heavy in as much as all Excise forms and registers are dispatched from this office directly to the Districts and Ranges and indents for such articles are recived throughout the year. In addition to this, there are the paint, instruments and uniform, which also have to be sent to the Districts and Ranges. The accommodation in the District office buildings for the Excise Commissioner's office being inconveniently small, a portion of the records and other articles are kept downstairs, and this inconvenience entails extra work on the peons. In these circumstances, I beg to submit that Government may be pleased to permit the continuance of the three peons whose services are now required to be dispensed with.

3. I may be permitted to compare the menial staff allowed to other Heads of Departments. The office of the Conservator of Forests with one Gazetted officer and 13 Clerks is allowed 16 peons; the office of the Inspector General of Police with 2 Gazetted officers and 14 Clerks is allowed 17 peons; The office of the Revenue Commissioner with 3 Gazetted officers and 28 Clerks is given 30 peons; besides one sweeper, one scavenger and one gardener whose pay is met out of the contingencies; the office of the Military Assistant with 2 Gazetted officers and 6 Clerks is allowed 10 peons. I beg to submit that 19 peons to an office consisting of 2 Gazetted officers and 19 Clerks are not more than what is required, especially for the reasons stated in the last last para and I therefore request that I may be permitted to have the same menial establishment that existed previous to the retrenchment.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Offg: Excise Commissioner

in Mysore.

The number of the Excise Commissioners orderlies is reduced to 4 which is less than that allowed for ordinary Assistant Commissioners in the Revenue Department. Without a Masalchi and Farash, it is impossible to keep the office well swept and clean. It is suggested therefore that the existing strength of the menial establishment may not be curtailed. 2.
